CONDITIONS OF SALE.

—o—

- I. THE highest Bidder to be the Buyer; and if any dispute arise between two or more Bidders, the Lot so in dispute shall be immediately put up again and re-sold.
- II. No person to advance less than 1s.; above Five Pounds, 5s.; and so on in proportion.
- III. In the case of Lots upon which there is a reserve, the Auctioneer shall have the right to bid on behalf of the Sellers.
- IV. The Purchasers to give in their Names and Places of Abode, and to pay down 5s. in the pound, or more, in part of payment, or the whole of the Purchase-Money, if required; in default of which, the Lot or Lots so purchased to be immediately put up again and re-sold.
- V. The Lots to be taken away and paid for, whether genuine and authentic or not, with all faults and errors of description, at the Buyer's expense and risk, within Two days from the Sale; neither MESSRS. CHRISTIE, MANSON and WOODS, nor the sellers being responsible for the correct description, genuineness, or authenticity of, or any fault or defect in, any Lot; or making any warranty whatever.
- VI. To prevent inaccuracy in delivery, and inconvenience in the settlement of the Purchases, no Lot can on any account be removed during the time of Sale; and the remainder of the Purchase-Money must absolutely be paid on the delivery.
- VII. Upon failure of complying with the above Conditions, the Money deposited in part of payment shall be forfeited; all Lots un-cleared within the time aforesaid shall be re-sold by public or private Sale, and the deficiency (if any) attending such re-sale shall be made good by the Defaulter at this Sale.

SANDRO BOTTICELLI.

(1874,92) 504 THE STORY OF NASTAGIO DEGLI ONESTE, or the torments in a future state to which ladies who are cruel to their lovers are liable to be condemned, as set forth in the
'Decameron' of Boccaccio

The feast given by the disconsolate young man to his friends in the woods at Ravenna, where the lady appears suddenly hunted by her dead lover and his infernal dogs; all the guests are jumping up in confusion and throwing over glasses, dishes, &c. The booth in which they are feasting is decorated with the arms of the Pucci and Medici families and the stump of a tree of Julius II.

SANDRO BOTTICELLI.

- ✓ 507 THE COMPANION

The foregoing Pictures are described by Vasari ('Vita de Botticelli,' vol. v., p. 113) as having been painted originally for the Casa Pucci. On them are the arms of the family of Pucci united with those of the Bini (in 1487 Purfrancesco di Giovanni Bini married Lucrezia di Francisco di Giovanni Pucci), and they are believed to have been painted on the occasion of that wedding festivity.

In the architectural ornaments of the fourth Picture (the Wedding Feast) the arms of the Medici are introduced.
